

Entry Qualifications

Four GCSEs at grades A* - C, must include English and Mathematics

or

A Btec First Certificate in Construction

or

Applicants having suitable experience and sound construction knowledge.

Contact information

If you are interested in this course or require any further information, please contact:

Peter Dean
Programme Coordinator

or

Sarah-Jane Brewin
Course Tutor

Telephone: 01481 737500

The Guernsey College of Further Education
Route des Coutanchez • St Peter Port • Guernsey • GY1 2TT
Tel: 01481 737500 • Fax: 01481 746730
Email: college@gcfe.net • web: guernseycollege.com

BTEC National Certificate in Construction

This course is designed for those who are embarking on a career in the construction industry and are seeking to progress onto higher qualifications.

It is designed to provide a detailed introduction to the Construction Industry, for those wishing to follow careers in:

Architecture
Building Management
Civil Engineering
Building Services
Structural Engineering
Quantity Surveying
Building Surveying
and many other occupations within the Construction Industry.

Subjects studied

Year One

- Construction Technology and Design *
- Analytical Methods *
- Graphical Detailing **
- Construction Science and Materials *
- Health, Safety and Welfare *
- Construction and the Environment *

Year Two

- Surveying Processes **
- Building Technology **
- ICT and CAD
- Building Surveying **
- Planning, Organisation and Control of Resources **
- Topographic Surveying

* Mandatory core units

 Mandatory specialist units

Additional qualifications

Further studies and progression

- Btec HNC course
- CIOB Certificate in Site Management
- Middle management opportunities within the industry
- Provides a progression route for professional qualifications

Duration: Two years, day release