HNC/HND Art & Design

Art Practice/Design Practice/

HNC/HND Art & Design

Art Practice/Design Practice/

Introduction to the course

The HNC/D course is made up of a selection of units that offer you the best possible start to a career in the creative industries.

The courses give you the opportunity to immerse yourself in creative experimentation, concept development and the exploration of your own individual perspective.

These courses appeal to students seeking careers within the creative sector on the island. The programmes have been developed by working closely with local employers to identify essential skills required to be successful in the creative industries.

Course details

The one-year HNC and two-year HND are delivered through a blend of lectures, research and practical workshops. Your personal process and skills will be enhanced with a combination of tutorials, study visits, group critiques and studio practice. You will work on a range of challenging and industry-relevant projects that will develop your skills and understanding of the creative sector.

Upon successful completion of the HNC course you can progress to HND in year two. These HE courses will develop your ability to seek creative sector employment with confidence. You will practise your skills in a range of Art & Design subjects and develop your conceptual and critical thinking ability.

The College provides access to a range of creative and digital facilities including a state-of-the-art Mac suite and well equipped studios. Attendance will be 15 hours per week however, access to the HE studio space will be available throughout College opening hours as the focus will be on independent and experimental learning.
